

I'm a young researcher with a keen interest in population and landscape genomics of all sorts of organisms (protozoa, viruses, fish,...). I have well established skills in statistical data analyses and bio-informatic analyses for population/ landscape genomic, phylogenomic and -geographic analyses, and I do not mind making my hands dirty during field work.